

ELEPHANT BUTTE

ANIMAL ORDINANCE INFORMATION

This ordinance is created and adopted pursuant to the authority set forth in 77-1-12, 77-1-15 NMSA 1978

Animals At Large is any animal outside the property of the owner or not controlled by a leash.

It is UNLAWFUL for any person to allow or permit an animal to run at large in or on any street alley, sidewalk, vacant lot, public or private property.

No person shall keep or harbor a dangerous animal.

It is UNLAWFUL for the owner of an animal to permit, either willfully or through failure to exercise due care or control, the animal to commit any nuisance upon any property other than that of the owners of the animal.

It is UNLAWFUL to allow any animal to persistently or continuously bark, howl or make noise common to the species.

It is UNLAWFUL to keep or maintain animals in such a manner as to disturb by noxious or offensive odors.